EMILY &NOAH

EMILY & NOAH is the private label of Meier Lederwaren, a company that has stood for tradition, quality, and independent design since 1921. The brand embodies the connection of classic values with a modern, trend-conscious lifestyle. Each bag from EMILY & NOAH reflects this successful blend and brings a fresh breeze to the product range of Meier Lederwaren. Courage and a spirit of innovation lead the company to explore new paths and specialize in high-quality bags made from fine synthetics – a versatile and sustainable material that offers an attractive alternative to animal leather. For EMILY & NOAH, fashion is not just a trend but an expression of joie de vivre and constant development. A German design team and international trend scouts ensure that the brand always incorporates current influences and that the collections remain both modern and timeless. EMILY & NOAH stands for diversity and gives every bag lover the opportunity to emphasize their own style. The range extends from purist-elegant to extravagant, detailed designs and various bag shapes – whether shopper, hobo bag, clutch, or backpack, each bag becomes an individual statement through its characteristic design and high-quality craftsmanship.

*Color Story
Autumn/Winter 2026*

This season's palette feels calm, grounded and yet surprisingly rich in nuance. Warm nature-inspired shades such as sand, taupe, brown, cognac and beige form the heart of the collection, lending each style a timeless sense of sophistication and ensuring effortless integration into a wide variety of looks. Classic black and soft white introduce minimalism and clarity, while muted tones like grey and olive gently expand the color spectrum with a more restrained note. Deep reds, cool blues and greens add carefully placed pops of color without overpowering the overall character of the collection. Paired with matte, textured or glossy surfaces, the hues unfold their full impact. The result is a harmonious, style-conscious world of color that not only dresses the winter season, but makes it feel genuinely cosy.
